Look at the pictures given below and number them in the correct order to make the life cycle of a plant.

A seed is planted in the soil.

The stem and its leaves start to grow.

The shoots start to grow through the seed coat.

The roots start to grow.

A small part of plant peeps above the soil.

The seed develops into a small baby plant.

LIVEWORKSHEETS