VOCABULARY PRACTICE

Let's listen to the recording again and fill in blanks below

CLERK: Do you have any special 1 ? You know, things you want 2 in some special place, so you know where to find them?

WOMAN: Like what?

CLERK: Oh, I don't know... Things like 3 maybe. Not to be 4 , but you look like a lady who likes to eat.

WOMAN: Ahhh! Yes, I need my dishes and things where I can find them 5 .

CLERK: Great. We'll put those dishes and cutlery in what we call the 6 pack. Can you think of anything else?

WOMAN: Ummm, I do have an 7 tea kettle my great-grand-mother gave my mother. I wouldn't want to lose that. So I guess you'd better put that in 8 with the 9 .

CLERK: Grandma's tea kettle with the furniture, got it! Say, how about things like your 10 clock? You don't want to miss your plane on the big day, right?

WOMAN: Well, you 11 think of everything! Yes, that's right. I'll also need my alarm clock where I can find it.

CLERK: Fine, we'll put that in your 12 package. And of course, we'll give you a list of where we 13 everything. So, all you'll have to do on Thursday, the 14th is grab your 14 on your way out the door. Um, I couldn't help 15 the new CD player you're carrying. Is that a Samsung?

WOMAN: Why? Yes, it is. One of their best. Cost me nearly a hundred 16 , it did!

CLERK: Do you want to take special 17 of it? I mean it's 18 new.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

WOMAN: Take care of it, but nothing special. You can just put it in storage with the furniture.

CLERK: That looks like everything we need here. I guess you're all 19 .

WOMAN: That was certainly quick. Thank you, young man. This has been a most 20 experience!
