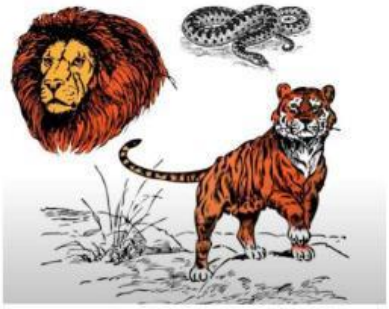
PREDATORS AND PREY RELATIONSHIPS

Fill-In-The-Blank



Some animals are called _____ b/c they _____ other animals for _____. The animals they hunt are called _____.

Lions are predators and they hunt animals like Zebras and Gazelles. These Zebras and Gazelles are the lion's _____. Lions are are specially _____ to hunt prey that share the environment. Predators have sharp _____ and _____ to grip and kill their prey.

Other predators, like Cobras _____ their prey to kill them outright or paralyze it in order to catch it.

Lions and other predators also have _____. This means that their eyes are _____ of their heads, making it easier to judge distance and size of other animals.

Prey animals are also adapted to _____ their predators. They have eyes _____ of their heads which give them a wider view of their surroundings so that they can try and spot a predator before it attacks.

Some animals that are prey use _____, meaning their bodies have colors or patterns that make it difficult for predators to see them. However camouflage can also be used by predators. Tigers have _____ that help them to hide among long grass.

Word Bank

escape	food	Binocular Vision	claws	adapted
inject	on the sides	in front	camouflage	prey
hunt	Prey	predators	stripes	teeth

LIVEWORKSHEETS