Phrasal verbs with 'take'

1. MATCH EXPRESSIONS WITH THEIR DEFINITIONS:

take	to return something you have bought to a shop
take away	to start doing a particular job or activity, to fill an amount of space and time
take something back	to carry or move something from one place to another take in	to take control of something
take up	to remove something; make a feeling, pain etc disappear
take over	to believe something that is not true, to understand new information

2. COMPLETE THE SENTENCES:

1. Why don't you take ____ a new hobby?
2. I think you should take ____ this business.
3. The students couldn't take ____ the lecture.
4. If this dress is too small you can take it ____ to the shop.
5. Let me take ____ these empty plates.

back over away up in

2. COMPLETE THE SENTENCES WITH PREPOSITIONS UP,IN,BACK,OVER,AWAY:

1. He took ____ art as his subject at school.
2. I think the Internet won't take ____ reading books.
3. She took me ____ with her story so I believed her.
4. He took ____ the book from a bookshelf.
5. I took ____ the shoes that fell apart after a week.
6. This is a very hard lesson, I have a lot to take ____
7. After morbing to another city he took ____ writing as a new hobby.
8. Mobile phone took ____ home phones a few years ago.
9. Do you have any books to take ____ to the library?
10. I don't understand English very well. I couldn't take ____ everything they said.
11. I took some pills to take ____ the pain.
12. I couldn't take ____ that Spanish dialogue in the movie.
13. Two sandwiches to take ____ , please.
14. This table takes ____ too much room.
15. I need to take ____ this microwave oven, it doesn't work.
16. I'm afraid we can't take ____ this smell of paint. We have to wait one day.
17. A new game completely took ____ whole game industry.
18. She took ____ tennis as her new sport and hobby.
19. This tree near the window takes ____ all the light from my room.
20. This lecture was very interesting and we took ____ every detail of it.

LIVEWORKSHEETS