Chapter 6

A Quest : Plants

Answer the following questions to learn more about plants. Pick answers from the Help Card :

1. Which country you find the world's biggest rainforest?

   _____

2. Which insectivorous plant can trap and consume a fly as well as a small frog?

   _____

3. Which important cereal crop is grown in shallow water?

   _____

4. What is the seed of an Oak tree called?

   _____

5. Which fruit is a great source of Vitamin C and helps in preventing a cold?

   _____

6. Which machine is used to cut the wheat crop and separate grains from stalks right there in the field?

   _____

7. What are the pipe like tissues, which carry water in a plant called?

   _____

8. Which tree is a national symbol of Canada?

   _____

9. What are the plants that take their food from other plants called?

   _____

10. Which is the world's oldest flower that still exists?

    _____

BOOST UP

The Oleander or Neruim Oleander is considered as a very poisonous plant. A single leaf of this plant contains enough poison to kill a human child.

Help Card

Parasitic plants, Ambarella, Rice, Maple, Combine Harvester, Orange, Venus Flytrap, Brazil, Xylem, Acron.

LIVEWORKSHEETS