Grammar Ex. > Comparative & Superlative Adjectives

Martha wrote a letter to Joe about his trip to Africa. Fill in the gaps using the corresponding comparative or superlative form of the adjectives in brackets.

Dear Joe,

How have you been? I want to share with you (1) _____ (wonderful) experiences and adventures I had in my trip to Africa last month.

I visited amazing places, explored (3) _____ (good) natural attractions ever, and tasted new food. The first days I went on a safari in Kenya and could see (3) _____ (fast) animals on Earth -the cheetahs, and I learned that hippos can be (4) _____ (aggressive) what people think.

I climbed hills, went through forests, and swam in lakes. I crossed the Nile, (5) _____ (long) river in the world, and I could see crocs (6) _____ (big) you or me. Did you know these crocs have (7) _____ (strong) bite in the animal kingdom?

Then, I visited Egypt and saw (8) _____ (old) pyramid in the world, which was built for King Djoser. However, (9) _____ (incredible) things took place in Cairo when I stepped into the famous Giza Pyramids Complex and had lunch in Oasis, a food court with space for (10) _____ (much) 4,000 people. I felt (11) _____ (happy) ever.

As you can imagine Africa is (12) _____ (hot) our hometown during daytime. However, the temperature can get (13) _____ (low) 2ºC at night. Can you believe it?

I look forward to hearing about your own holiday adventures.

Warmest regards,

Martha
