Directions: Let's make a paragraph today.

_____

Write the title here

By: _____

In the story, Karl is a student who stops one boy on picking on other people. Karl showed courage when he asked the boy to stop. If you were Karl, what will you do to show courage? In school, during group work you notice one of your classmate is making fun of another classmate's idea, what will you do? On your way home, you saw a group of school aged kids picking on a new kid in your neighborhood, what will you do? In the playground, you saw a group of kids playing hopscotch and one of them haven't had his turn yet even after many rounds, what will you do?

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

In the story, Kelly showed courage when she talked to her friend about stealing If you were Kelly, what will you do to show courage?

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS