

Watch the video and complete the information with the words provided.

All living things are made up of _____ and require food and water to _____.

Animals depend on other animals or plants for _____ while plants make their own food.

All living things _____ in air. The method of taking in air differs in different animals.

All living things _____. However, the movement of most plants may not be so obvious to our eyes.

Do you know _____ plant faces the Sun as it rises and follows it across the sky as it sets?

All living things live and _____ in a place suitable for them to feel safe, find food and reproduce.

grow

Can you spot a penguin in a desert? Well no, because it cannot _____ in heat.

sunflower

All living things grow. Animals grow up to a point while plants grow throughout their _____.

live

All living things _____. Some animals lay eggs while some give birth to young ones and most plants reproduce through _____.

cells

Every living thing has certain _____ to eliminate waste from their _____.

Oxygen is actually a _____ product given out by the plants.

food

move

Respond to _____ is also one characteristic of living things.

Plants also respond to stimuli such as sunlight touch and _____.

water

die

All living things live for a period of time and then _____.

Now let's take a quick look at all characteristics of living things we learned:

have

lives

1. need _____

breathe

2. need air, _____ and warmth

environment

3. move

seeds

remove

4. need to live in a suitable _____

mechanism

stimuli

5. grow

reproduce

respond

survive

food

6. reproduce

bodies

7. _____ waste materials

sunlight

waste

8. _____ to stimuli

9. _____ lifespan