Solving Math Problems

Challenge Problems Page 3

1. Match the number with a number that has ten more.

141	573
563	151
553	807
797	1007
997	563

2. Match the number to the words.

three hundred eighty-one	572
five hundred seventy-two	381
five hundred eighteen	325
three hundred twenty-five	518

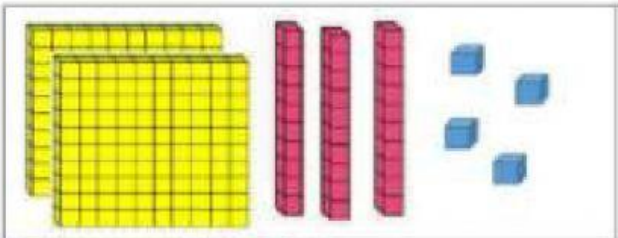
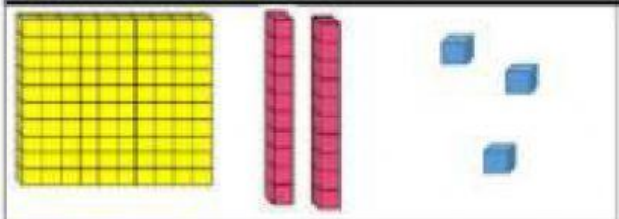
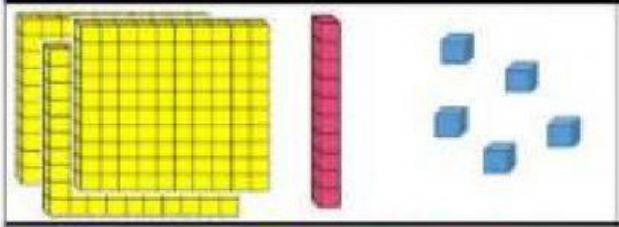
LIVEWORKSHEETS

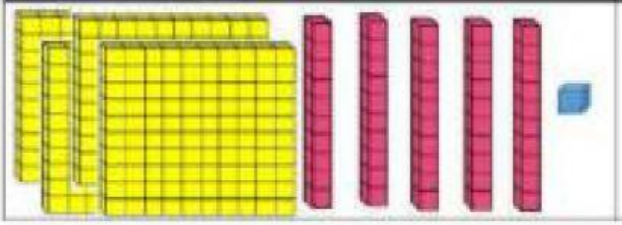
3. Fill in the missing numbers.

	hundreds	tens	ones









4. Find the number.

a) Sara is thinking of a number. The number is greater than two hundred twenty-five, but less than two hundred twenty-nine. It is an even number. Her number had 8 ones. What is Sara's number?

b) Rashid is also thinking of a number. His number is an odd number. His number is greater than seven hundred eighty-two. His number is smaller than seven hundred eighty- six. His number is not 785. What is his number?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS