Conjunctions: connecting main clauses

Grade 3 Conjunctions Worksheet

Use conjunctions & a comma to join sentences.

Do you want dessert? Would you prefer to go outside now? (or)

Do you want dessert, or would you prefer to go outside now?

Combine the two sentences using the word brackets and a comma.

1. Randy needs a haircut. He does not have any money. (but)

   _____

   _____

2. Joey emptied the litter box. He also gave the cat a bath. (and)

   _____

3. You could put your hair up in a bun. You could tie it in pigtails. (or)

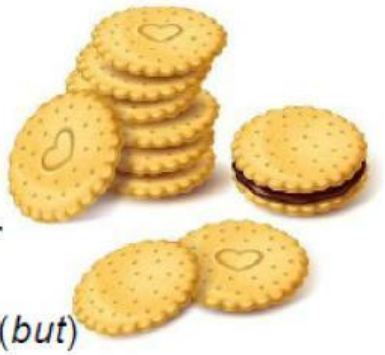
   _____

4. Next summer, we could visit Florida. We could go to the Grand Canyon. (or)

   _____

5. Melanie bought cookies at the store. She put them away in the cupboard. (and)

   _____



6. My uncle would like to fly planes. He is afraid of heights. (but)

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Combine the two sentences using the word in brackets and a comma.

Use conjunctions and commas to join sentences.

Rick likes riding his bicycle. He got a flat tire last night. (but)

Rick likes riding his bicycle, but he got a flat tire last night.

1. We could walk to the park. We could go swimming. (or)

   _____

   _____

2. Fanny enjoys baking. There is no flour left. (but)

   _____

3. They play with trucks. They put their toys away. (and)

   _____

4. Linda wrote her name on the sheet. She answered the first question. (and)

   _____

5. Jeremy wanted to play baseball. It started raining. (but)

   _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS