Going to + infinitive of purpose

1. Look, read and match.

She is going to the clothes shop	to get a bus.
I'm going to the library	to swim.
We're going to the sports centre	to buy a sweater.
They are going to the market	to read a book.
He's going to the bus station	to get some money.
You're going to the bank	to buy some apples.

2. Complete the sentences choose the correct verb to be and the infinitive of purpose.

- They _____ going to the supermarket _____ some grapes.
- I _____ going to the sports centre _____ volleyball.
- My mum _____ going to the library _____ book.
- We _____ going to the bank _____ some money.
- My brother _____ going to the playground _____ on the swings.
- You _____ going to your aunt's home _____ her in the kitchen.
- I _____ going to the market square _____ a T-shirt.
- She _____ going to the bus station _____ a bus.
- They _____ going to the cinema _____ a film.
- He _____ going to his friend's house _____ for the maths test.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Order the following sentences.

milk. | supermarket | buy | to | going to | the | some | Mum's

I'm | bills. | going to | the | to | bank | pay | my

the | my friends. | to | going to | with | play | park | They're to | film. | She's | the | a | cinema | see | going to

LIVEWORKSHEETS