Possessive Pronouns

Possessive pronouns take the place of a possessive noun or a possessive adjective and pronoun. Examples are: mine, yours, hers, his, its, ours, theirs

Directions: Rewrite each sentence, replacing the underlined part with a possessive pronoun.

1. Lucy's bag is the green one. _____
2. One of the bird's tail feathers is red. _____
3. My phone is pink. _____
4. You can go to anyone's room except our room.
   _____
5. Their car is blue. _____

Directions: Write a sentence using each possessive pronoun. Remember to capitalize the first letter and punctuate at the end.

1. Its: _____
2. Hers: _____
3. Yours: _____

Directions: Complete the sentence with a possessive pronoun.

1. This room belongs to my sisters. This room is _____.
2. Those glasses belong to you. Those glasses are _____.
3. These books belong to Bruce. These books are _____.
4. Two of these dollars belong to me. Two of these dollars are _____ .

LIVEWORKSHEETS