FATHER & DAUGHTER

– whose day is more stressful?

Nico is a chef and has his own restaurant, the Blue Jar. He lives in Chile with his wife and her three children, aged 16, 12, and 9.

0630 I get up and make breakfast for the children. Then I have breakfast – a coffee and cereal – and I read the sports section of the paper.

0715 I go to the market to buy fruit and vegetables for the restaurant.

0845 When I get to the restaurant I check the reservations and my emails, and plan the special menu of the day. I have my second cup of coffee.

1030 I start cooking. The radio is on, and we are busy with breakfast orders, but we also have to prepare the food for lunch.

1200 I check the tables, and have my third coffee.

1330 Suddenly everyone arrives at the same time and the restaurant is full (on a good day). I start to shout instructions at the chefs and waiters. We make lunch for 85 people in about an hour and a half.

1445 I come into the restaurant and talk to the customers, and ask if they are happy with the food. I'm really hungry now.

1530 Finally I have lunch. I don't enjoy it very much because I don't have time to relax.

- 1600 After lunch I go back to the kitchen and plan the food for the evening menu.
- 1730 I go home to be with the family for a couple of hours. The children do their homework and I make their dinner.
- 1930 I go back to the restaurant, which is full again, and I check everything is OK.
- 2200 I go home and have a shower. Then I collapse on the sofa with a sandwich and a glass of wine.
- 2300 I go to bed, ready to start again the next day.
