Review Exercise based on RE Units 7-8

Fill the blanks with the words from the box.

abandon	admired	assume	attitude	authority
belongings	budget	celebrity	claim	consent
consider	considerable	derived	distinctively	dominate
emphasis	export	finance	guard	handle
industry	informal	intention	invest	journal
misfortune	objective	observation	obtain	perceive permission	predictable	prevent	Prior	profits
regard	translate	undertake	voyage	wisdom

Omar's Football Dream

Omar always (1) _____ famous football players on TV. He wanted to (2) _____ the field like them. One day, his parents gave him (3) _____ to join a football club. They agreed to (4) _____ his training, and Omar was very excited. At the club, he met other kids who shared the same (5) _____: to get better at football. The coach shared his (6) _____ and told them to always (7) _____ teamwork.

Sadly, some (8) _____ happened when Omar hurt his leg during practice. The coach told him to (9) _____ his health and (10) _____ further injuries by resting. While resting, Omar read a (11) _____ written by a famous football player. He learned from the player's (12) _____ that success is not always (13) _____ but comes from hard work.

When Omar recovered, he was ready to (14) _____ new challenges. His coach gave him the (15) _____ to lead the team in a match. Omar's improved skills, (16) _____ from many hours of practice, paid off. His team won the game, and the coach explained that true success isn't about (17) _____ or fame, but about working together.

Later, Omar's team had to take a long (18) _____ to a big tournament in another country. He didn't want to (19) _____ his dream, so he went with his parents' (20) _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

The club had a small (21) _____, so they had to be careful with money. Omar also had to keep his (22) _____ safe during travels. (23) _____ to the tournament, he practiced every day to be ready. The tournament was tough, and Omar had to learn (24) _____ new skills. Even though there was pressure to win, Omar didn't let it affect him. He knew that staying calm would help him (25) _____ success. In one important match, Omar had to (26) _____ a tough situation, but he stayed focused on winning.

After the tournament, Omar was invited to join a bigger team. He was excited and ready to (27) _____ his time in training. Football was not just a game; it was a big (28) _____. He thought that if he became a (29) _____, he could have T-shirts with his name on them and perhaps (30) _____ them to other countries. Some people may (31) _____ that being famous is easy, but Omar knew not to (32) _____ that he could achieve success without dedication and patience.

As Omar played, he started to (33) _____ how important teamwork was. They worked on their goal to win games together. His coach put special (34) _____ on Omar's growth, seeing his positive (35) _____. Omar's practice sessions were (36) _____ but very effective. Omar's dream began to (37) _____ into reality as he got better. Through all this, Omar's main (38) _____ was to improve, and he became known for his (39) _____ strong leadership. In (40) _____ to his future, he was more motivated than ever.

LIVEWORKSHEETS