Task 1

Write the statements in the correct groups.

plant trees	6 per cent of insect species will disappear		18.5 per cent of people will be affected by heatwaves
some coral reefs will disappear	buy less meat, especially beef	buy fewer new clothes	all coral reefs will disappear
18 per cent of insect species will disappear	walk or ride a bike		37 per cent of people will be affected by heatwaves

What will happen with a 1.5°C rise	What will happen with a 2°C rise	What we can do to help

Task 2

Complete the sentences with words from the box.

twice	billions	average	high	by half	compared	major	to	of

1. Today, the ..... temperature of the planet is about 15°C.
2. Scientists think that temperatures may rise ..... 3–5°C by 2100.
3. Although ..... a degree doesn't seem very much, it could make a big difference.
4. Eighteen per cent ..... insects on Earth will disappear if the temperature rises by 2°C.
5. This is ..... to six per cent disappearing at 1.5°C.
6. If there is a 2°C rise, ... the number of people will be affected by heatwaves.
7. We will be in a better situation if we limit the rise ..... 1.5°.
8. We need to plant ..... of trees.
9. Beef production generates a ..... amount of greenhouse gases.
10. The fashion industry is a ..... source of greenhouse gases.

LIVEWORKSHEETS