

Look at the pictures and write sentences about their activities.

You can give a name to them

A large, empty rectangular box with a blue border, intended for writing sentences about the activities shown in the illustrations above. The bottom right corner of the box is folded over, resembling a page corner.