English Language Fundamentals Summative Assessment Test I trimester Practice

Teacher: Raquel Campos

Student´s Name: _____

Group: _____

I part

Read the sentence and circle the correct answer that represents the type of paragraph

1. I got lost on my very first day as camp counselor.

a. narrative

b. descriptive

c. expository

d. persuasive

2. The Civil War began in 1861.

a. narrative

b. descriptive

c. expository

d. persuasive

3. My new candle smells like a freshly brewed stick of cinnamon

a. narrative

b. descriptive

c. expository

d. persuasive

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4. Students should never have to do their own laundry.

a. narrative

b. descriptive

c. expository

d. persuasive

5. My camping trip in the Smoky Mountains was exciting.

a. narrative

b. descriptive

c. expository

d. persuasive

6. The Florida Everglades' invasive Burmese python can be dealt with in

a. narrative

b. descriptive

c. expository

d. persuasive

II part

Turn the following future sentences to simple present sentences

LIVEWORKSHEETS

1. She will graduate from university next year with honors.

_____

3. He will travel to Japan next month to attend a conference on robotics.

_____

4. You will become an excellent chef with practice and dedication.

_____

5. We will start our own business once we secure enough funding.

_____

6. She will achieve her dream of becoming a professional dancer with hard work.

_____

7.He will excel in his new role as team captain with his leadership skills.

_____

8. You will make a difference in the world with your passion and determination.

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

III part Write the correct name of the type of paragraph given box given based on the provided information.

Narrative, Persuasive, Expository, introductory, Transitional, Summarizing, topic sentence , paragraph, and main idea

1. It restates briefly the idea of the chapter. _____
2. It mentions the main idea of the chapter and writer's opinion. _____
3. It is known as the body paragraph. _____
4. It describes something. It could be, people, things, animals and objects. _____
5. The author is trying to persuade the audience with scientific facts. _____
6. The author gives examples to explain a topic by giving examples _____
7. Group of sentences related to a topic _____
8. It is the main point that the author wants to express in the paragraph _____
9. You can find it mostly at the beginning of the paragraph. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS