Narrative Essay (Story): A Competition

In your class, you have been talking about a competition that you took part in the past. In about 100 words, write an essay about the experience. You must use the notes below to help you.

A competition

- When it happened
- What the competition was
- Who participated in the competition
- How the competition went

Last month, my school celebrated English language month. It was a special programme to _____ and have fun learning the language. The school organized many activities throughout the month, and everyone was _____.

I joined one of the spelling competitions that was organized at my school. It was _____, so I was both excited and nervous. I had spent many days preparing by practising new words, _____, and understanding how to pronounce them. My teacher and family encouraged me, and that gave me more confidence to try my best.

The competition _____ from all forms. It made the event even more special. Participation of students from Form 1 to Form 5 made the competition more challenging, fun, and _____.

I didn't win, but it was a great experience, and I felt proud to be part of it. I not only improved my English skills but also learned how to _____ across age groups. This experience brought the whole school closer together, and I hope my school will continue this tradition next year.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Complete the essay above with given answers below excited to participate brought together students my first time competing in such an event inspiring for everyone encourage students to improve their English skills learning their meanings support each other and share knowledge

LIVEWORKSHEETS