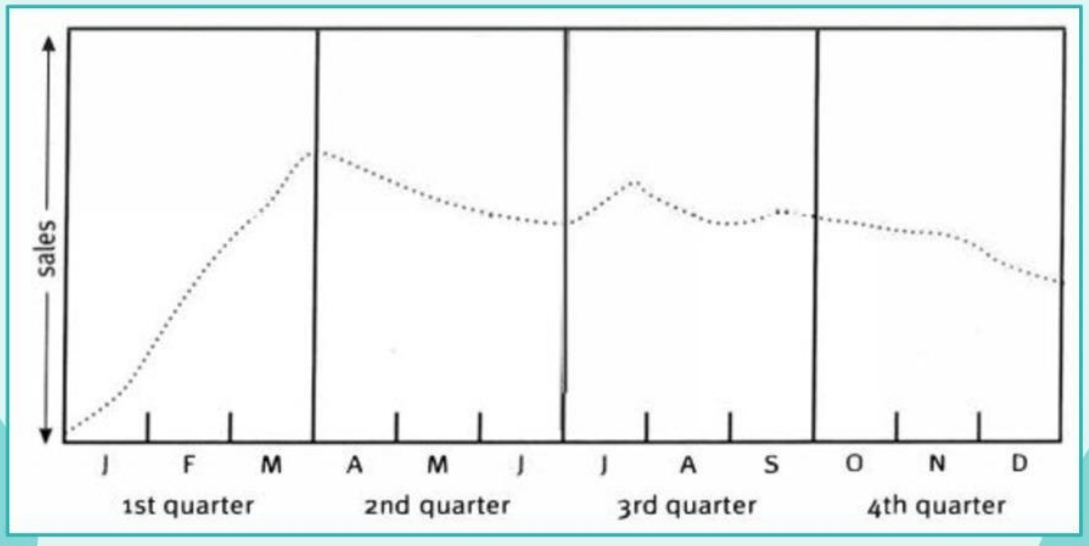
Look at the graph, which shows sales of soft of soft drinks produced by Kanko. Then underline the correct adverbs (1 - 10) in the text.



As you can see from the graph, it has been a _____ disappointing year for Kanko overall. However, the first quarter was _____ good, as sales of our new soft drink N-Ergy rose _____ .

Unfortunately, owing to unexpected production problems, sales fell _____ throughout the second quarter. They then rose _____ until the end of July. The rest of the summer was _____ less successful, and sales did not pick up again until the first half of September. We were then _____ confident that we had the situation under control, but sales just levelled off throughout the next two months.

Subsequent problems at our Norwich subsidiary, however, meant that sales began to drop _____, and there are no signs of a possible recovery at present. It appears that we had _____ misjudged the seriousness of the situation at Norwich, and that we were not _____ prepared to handle such a crisis.
