5 Choose the correct answers.

In 2013, my family decided to move from Slovakia to the UK. I went to school there, but in the beginning, I had a very hard time. First of all, I was really embarrassed because I spoke with a Slovak [1]dialect / accent / slang. Secondly, even though the [2]fluent / foreign / official language is English, which I had learned in school, I couldn't understand the [3]dialect / native / official speakers, because there are many [4]dialects / translations / slang. It all sounded like a completely [5]native / official / foreign language – nothing I remembered from school. But I was lucky to make some Slovak friends, so in the beginning they taught me by using [6]translation / slang / foreign language. I also watched a lot of English TV, tried to speak to as many people as possible, read newspapers, and after a while, I stopped having problems and became a(n) [7]official / fluent / native speaker. I even picked up some for [8]dialect / slang / translation.

6 Circle the correct answers.

YouTube gurus

Making YouTube videos is no longer a hobby for some, but a lucrative way of earning money. Some make $100 a month, but there are other YouTube gurus that can earn tens of thousands dollars. The most popular channels are beauty lessons and shopping hauls (showing what you've bought on a recent shopping trip). Here are a few tips from some of the most popular gurus on how to be successful on YouTube:

1 You must / mustn't use someone else's idea. It's important to have your own!

2 You don't have to / mustn't film your own videos. Someone else can help you.

3 You mustn't / don't have to become friends with other YouTube gurus, but it's useful to get to know some of them.

4 You must / mustn't get upset if you don't have many fans. It takes time to become popular.

5 You have to / don't have to keep in touch with your viewers by regularly uploading videos and replying to comments.

6 You don't have to / must reply to every single comment, but it's good to reply to a few to show that you're interested in what your viewers have to say.
