WHERE DO PLANTS STORE THEIR FOOD?

LEARN AND PRACTICE

Some plants store food in their roots

Turnip | White Radish | Red Radish | Carrot | Beet Root

Some plants store food in their flowers

Cauliflower | Broccoli | Artichoke

Food stored in stems

Celery | Asparagus

Leeks

Potato tubers

Onion bulb

Underground stems

Some plants store food in their leaves

Spinach | Lettuce | Cabbage | Parsley

Food stored in fruits

Avocado | Bananas | Strawberries | Mango | Grapes | Apple | Tomatoes | Courgette | Pumpkin | Pepper | Aubergine/ Eggplant | Cucumber

Food stored in seeds

Pumpkin Seeds | Sunflower Seeds | Almonds | Pistachios | Walnuts | Hazelnuts | Peanuts | Pine Nuts | Corn | Peas | Beans | Chickpeas | Lentils

LIVEWORKSHEETS

So… what part of the plant do you eat when you are eating…?

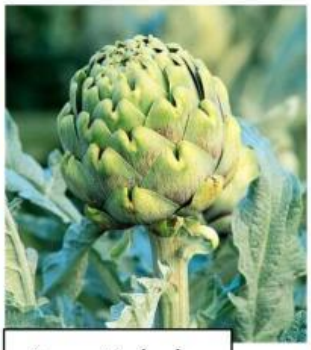
Sunflower seeds

Asparagus

Leeks



An artichoke

Peanuts

Radishes

Onions

Pine nuts

Almonds

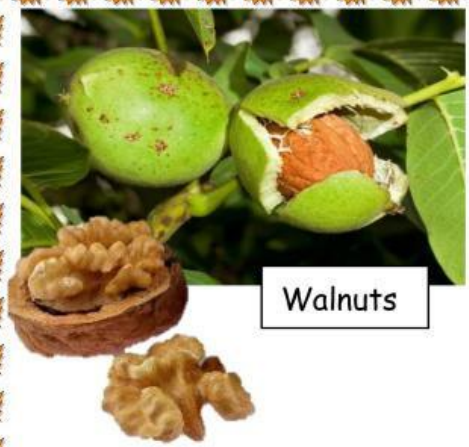
Lettuce

Beet root

Pumpkin

Celery

LIVEWORKSHEETS



Walnuts

Strawberries

Tomatoes

Spinach

Cabbage

Peas

Avocadoes

Carrots

Potatoes

Broccoli

Cauliflower

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Courgettes

Chick peas

Beans

Pears

Grapes

Blueberries

Peppers

María Liste

LIVEWORKSHEETS