TEST

Mark the sentences true or false

1. Crowdfunding typically involves three key players: the project creator, the crowd (backers), and the platform.
2. Crowdfunding is only used for funding music albums.
3. The crowd in crowdfunding refers to the people who create the projects.
4. Crowdfunding projects must be innovative and exciting to attract support.
5. The amount of money pledged by backers is always the same.
6. Backers in crowdfunding campaigns never receive anything in return for their contributions.
7. Successful crowdfunding campaigns can raise millions of dollars.
8. A video explaining the project and its rewards is a good way to attract backers.
9. Crowdfunding platforms usually operate offline.
10. The text mentions a video game that raised a significant amount of money through crowdfunding.

LIVEWORKSHEETS