The Battle of Verdun

Multiple Choice

1. The Battle of Verdun was one of the most _____ and _____ battles of World War I, fought between the German and French armies on the Western Front.

2. How long did the Battle of Verdun last?
    a. 6 months
    b. 10 months
    c. 12 months

3. The Battle of Verdun is known as the _____ and _____ battle of World War I.

4. Where is the town of Verdun located?
    a. Western Germany
    b. Southern France
    c. Northeastern France

5. Who launched the attack that started the Battle of Verdun?
    a. The Italians
    b. The Germans
    c. The British

6. What did the Germans use to exploit difficult conditions and wear down the French forces?
    a. The terrain
    b. Artillery
    c. Bombs

7. How many casualties were in the Battle of Verdun?
    a. 80,000 to 90,000
    b. 700,000 to 800,000
    c. 50,000 to 60,000

8. The immense scale of causalities and sheer brutality of fighting served as a stark reminder of the devastating consequences of _____.

9. In the end, the Battle of Verdun stands as a testament to the _____ and _____ displayed by the soldiers who fought and died on its blood-soaked fields.

LIVEWORKSHEETS