Patriotism During WWI

Multiple Choice

1. Who was President during World War 1?
    a. Thomas Jefferson
    b. Woodrow Wilson
    c. Ronald Reagan

2. The designers, illustrators, painters, and cartoonists shared a responsibility to illustrate for the people the _____ and demands of the Great War.

3. The goal was to place on every wall in America a call to patriotism and service by showing stories of courage, suffering, heroism, and most importantly _____ over the course of the war.

4. Illustrators and artists submitted over _____ poster designs to various government agencies including the United States Food Administration, The _____ program, and recruitment as well as private groups such as the _____.

5. Posters made an important contribution to America's _____ in World War 1.

6. The brilliant colors of the posters and urgency demanded a sense of _____.

7. The national symbols and icons such as the American Flag, the _____, and Uncle Sam inspired Americans to answer a call to Liberty.

8. After the war Congress found that _____ of the cost of the war had been raised by poster bond drives.

LIVEWORKSHEETS