Dear grandparents,

it's been a long time since I saw you last. How are you doing? How did you spend your Easter Sunday? Was the weather fine?

Did you hear about our new President? Her name is Miriam Spiteri Debono. She was all over the news. She is the third female President.

Thanks a lot for the incredible present you gave me for my birthday. I didn't expect such an astonishing jewellery box. I love the ballerina inside dancing to the music! I love her pink tutu!

I wish I can see you again soon. Mum told me that during the summer holidays we'll be visiting you in London. Can't wait to be by your side!

Hugs and kisses,
Joanne
