Frogs are both animals that live in wet places. Frogs have smooth, wet skin and long legs for jumping. They like to hop around and make croaking sounds. Frogs start their lives as tiny eggs in the water. The eggs hatch into tadpoles, which look like little fish. Tadpoles grow legs and turn into frogs.

Multiple-Choice Questions:

1. What kind of skin do frogs have?
    - A) Dry and scaly
    - B) Smooth and wet

2. Where do frogs lay their eggs?
    - A) In the water
    - B) In the trees

3. What do salamanders look like?
    - A) Fish
    - B) Lizards
4. What do both frogs and salamanders eat?
    - A) Bugs
    - B) Plants

LIVEWORKSHEETS