1: Read and write.

roar alive bones dinosaur scary model scream dead

1.	means no longer alive.
2.	make a very loud, deep sound
3.	It's often used to describe something that is frightening or terrifying.
4.	a loud, high shout when you are hurt, frightened, excited, etc.
5.	means having life; not dead or inanimate.
6.	any of the hard parts that form the skeleton of the body of a human or an animal.
7.	It is a reptile that lived millions of years ago but is now extinct.
8.	It is a copy of something, usually smaller than the original object.

2: Read and circle the correct option.

1. My sister see/ saw her best friend at the café.
2. They had/ haved a big house near the supermarket.
3. My best friend buyed/ bought a new bike.
4. I knowed/ knew the news last year.
5. My family goed/ went to the cinema last weekend.
6. They ate/ eated pizza for dinner.
7. We slept / sleep late on Sunday.
8. He drinked / drank milk for breakfast.
9. She weared/ wore a T-shirt and jeans last Monday .
10. My brother write/ wrote a letter to his best friend last week.
11. He done/ did her homework.
12. I find/ found my books last weekend.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3: Put the words in the correct column.

play buy cook draw wear listen catch think find have make write eat brush go drink watch paint see ride clean know roar kick

Regular verbs	Irregular verbs

4: Complete the sentences with the right form of the verbs.

buy find make eat go see write think know wear

1. My sister _____ many animals at the zoo last weekend.
2. I _____ the answers for these questions because they were easy.
3. She _____ her teddy bear under the bed last night.
4. I _____ seafood with my family in Ha Long Bay last summer.
5. She _____ her favourite dress at her friend's birthday party last night.
6. He _____ this dinosaur model in the souvenir shop.
7. My mother _____ to the market to buy somethings yesterday.
8. My grandmother _____ a big birthday cake for my birthday.
9. My friend _____ a stories about dinosaurs last year.
10. I _____ about this film all day. It was interesting.

LIVEWORKSHEETS