3 TEST

1. We observe tiny living things that we cannot see with the naked eye with a...
   a) field guide. b) microscope. c) telescope.
2. Unicellular living things have...
   a) just one cell. b) small cells. c) a large number of cells.
3. Animals are...
   a) unicellular. b) protoctists. c) multicellular.
4. Plants...
   a) feed on other living things.
   b) make their own food.
   c) feed on the remains of other living things.
5. Fungi with mushrooms...
   a) form on bread, on fruit and on the remains of other foods.
   b) are the best-known unicellular fungi.
   c) form mushrooms in order to reproduce.
6. Fungi...
   a) are always edible.
   b) are always poisonous.
   c) decompose the remains of living things into simple substances.
7. Protoctists includes two different groups:
   a) protozoa and algae. b) bacteria and algae. c) protozoa and bacteria.
8. Protozoa...
   a) make their own food.
   b) only live inside other living things.
   c) can only be seen through a microscope.
9. Algae live...
   a) in water. b) everywhere. c) inside other living things.
10. Bacteria are...
    a) unicellular. b) viruses. c) multicellular.

LIVEWORKSHEETS