The Industrial Revolution (18th-19th centuries) 	The Roman Empire ended in 476 AD. A barbarian king took control of Rome. Many parts of Europe changed after the fall.
World War I (1914-1918) 	In 1903, the Wright brothers flew the first airplane. They flew for only 12 seconds, but they made history.
The Fall of the Roman Empire (476 AD) 	Christopher Columbus discovered America in 1492. He traveled across the Atlantic Ocean with three ships. His voyage changed the world.
The First Flight by the Wright Brothers (1903) 	World War I started in 1914. Many countries fought in Europe. Millions of people died, and new countries appeared after the war.
The Great Depression (1929) 	The French people started a revolution in 1789. They fought for liberty and equality. Many changes happened in France and Europe.
The Discovery of America (1492) 	In 1929, the stock market crashed in the United States. Many people lost their jobs and homes. It affected countries around the world.
The First Man on the Moon (1969) 	In 1776, American leaders signed the Declaration of Independence. They wanted freedom from British rule. It created the United States of America.
World War II (1939-1945) 	World War II began in 1939. It was a very big and terrible war. After six years, peace returned, and the United Nations was created.
The French Revolution (1789) 	The Industrial Revolution began in England. People built machines and factories. Life in cities changed a lot.
The American Declaration of Independence (1776) 	In 1969, Neil Armstrong walked on the Moon. He said, "That's one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind." It was a great moment for humanity.

LIVEWORKSHEETS