Comparison Words

Instructions: Type your answers in their respective boxes, please be mindful of spelling!

slightly far more so much a bit even more	much rather quite somewhat considerably

1. The housing prices have increased _____ this year compared to last year.
2. Living in the city center is _____ convenient than living in the suburbs.
3. The process of buying a house is _____ complicated than I expected.
4. Renting an apartment can be _____ cheaper than buying a home.
5. The demand for housing has grown _____ in the past few months.
6. This neighborhood is _____ safer than the one we previously lived in.
7. The cost of utilities has gone up _____ since the new regulations were put in place.
8. I feel _____ unsure about moving to a new city for better housing options.
9. The recent housing development is _____ appealing to young families.
10. Houses in this area are _____ expensive during the holiday season.

LIVEWORKSHEETS