READING COMPREHENSION

Hi Carla,
The school trip to the mountains is still happening, but you must bring warm clothes! It might snow later, and it will definitely be cold in the morning. Don't forget your boots and gloves.
– Miss Taylor

What is the main message?

A. Carla has to cancel her school trip.
B. Carla should wear warm clothes because of the weather.
C. The trip is now in the afternoon instead of the morning.

Can you get some things from the supermarket? We need a few tomatoes, some bread, and a little milk. Don't buy any apples — we have lots!

What is the writer asking for?

A. Only apples
B. Many vegetables and fruit
C. Some food items and not others

Join Our Art Club!
Where? Room 204
When? Tuesdays, 4–5 p.m.
Who? All students welcome!
We'll draw, paint, and create fun art projects. Come with your ideas!

What is this poster about?

A. A one-time painting class on Friday
B. A weekly art club open to everyone
C. A school competition for artists

I'm staying at my cousin's house this weekend. His family lives next to the train station. Yesterday, we went to a park behind the museum. It was fun, but cold!

What is the message mostly about?

A. What they plan to do next weekend
B. Where the park is in the city
C. A visit with a family member and recent activities

LIVEWORKSHEETS