

To Fiona

Hi Fiona

How are you? At the moment Robert and I are sitting ¹ _____ (Where?) in the centre of London. We're going to the airport to meet some friends, but it's snowing today so it's taking a long time. Robert is reading ² _____ (What?) and I'm writing this email on my laptop and eating a sandwich at the same time!

Life with me is good. I like ³ _____ (What?) and the people in the office are nice. But I hate getting up in the morning! I start work at ⁴ _____ (What time?) and usually finish work at about six. But I'm having a day off today because ⁵ _____. (Why?) Their names are Lucas and Karen, and they live in Brazil. The last time I saw them was six years ago!

Oh dear, this traffic is terrible – we're not moving at all. Now Robert's talking to ⁶ _____ (Who?) on his mobile and the taxi driver is reading a book!

There isn't much family news – the children are fine. Tom has ⁷ _____ (What?) every week and he's very good now. Sally doesn't like sport at all, she wants to be a doctor when she's older. They both like ⁸ _____, (What?) but at the moment they're staying at my parents' house – the schools are closed today because of the snow.

Oh, we're moving again – good. I'll write again soon. Bye!

Love

Olivia
