ENGLISH LESSON PLAN

IMPERATIVES

EXPLANATION

What is an Imperative?

An imperative is a sentence that gives a command, instruction, advice, or request. It usually starts with a veb and does not have a subject because the subject is understood to be "you".

SPELLING RULES

- Imperatives use the base form of the verb.

  Clean your boots.
- For negative imperatives, use:

  Don't + base verb

  No subject ("You") is needed.

1. Raise your hand.

GRAMMAR CHART

Form	Example
Base verb	Stand up!
Negative form	Don't talk!
Polite form	Please tlose the door.

USES OF IMPERATIVES

Orders/Commands
- March!

Instructions
- Stop!

Warnings
- Don't run!

Requests (polite)
- Please pass thi rlog.

Military Examples:

Salute the officer!

Check your uniform!
- Line up!
- Check yor information!

EXERCISES

1. Salute the flag.

2. Stand in line.

3. Don't talk.

4. Raise your hand

LIVEWORKSHEETS