70 Years After Nagasaki Bombing

August 9th marked 70 years since the US dropped an _____ on Nagasaki, Japan. The city held a special memorial service on the _____ anniversary. The bell tolled at _____ to mark the exact moment the bomb fell. The atomic bomb destroyed the city of Nagasaki and killed over 70,000 people. This second bomb, which fell three days after the first atomic bomb on Hiroshima, ended _____. Japan's official surrender took place six days later on August 15th, 1945. The average age of Nagasaki's surviving _____ is 80 years old.

LIVEWORKSHEETS