

Jack from the forest

Jack lives alone in a small house in the forest. He lives more than 20 miles from the road. He rarely leaves home, but when he does, he drives a big car. In the winter, he drives a special car that can move over snow.

Jack grows his own food in a large garden. He plants carrots, potatoes, tomatoes and corn. His apple tree provides him with plenty of apples.

Jack also hunts deer, rabbits and turkeys for food. He lives near a small river, which provides him with plenty of clean water. It also provides him with plenty of fish! Jack loves to fish, and he is pretty good at it.

Jack uses an axe and chops down trees for wood. Then he cuts the wood into small pieces, which he burns in his stove. He keeps warm in the winter!

Jack also has fun. He reads a lot. He has a lot of books and reads most of them more than once. He also writes his own stories with an old typewriter.

Every night, Jack plays his guitar. He knows many different songs and plays several every night before he goes to bed.

Jack does not spend all of his time inside, though. He loves to spend time outside. During the day, he looks at plants and animals. Sometimes he even talks to the animals. During the night, he looks up at the night sky. He knows many stars by name.

He also plays a lot of solitaire. He is pretty good at it! He does not always win, but no one ever beats him!
