A. The weather was too cold to go swimming.
B. The weather was warm enough for going swimming.
C. The weather was so warm that we could go swimming.
D. The weather was not cold enough to go swimming.
Question 9: ”Where do you live?” the stranger asked me.

A. The stranger asked me where I live.
B. The stranger asked me where did I live.
C. The stranger asked me where I lived.
D. The stranger asked me where I am living.
Question 10: If I were you, I would tell him the truth.

A. I advise you telling him the truth.
B. You should to tell him the truth.
C. I think you should tell him the truth.
D. If I am you, I will tell him the truth.
Question 11: No one in my class is taller than Peter.

A. Peter is the tallest in my class.
B. Peter is taller than no one in my class.
C. Everyone in my class is taller than Peter.
D. Peter is not as tall as everyone in my class.
Question 12: He spoke very quickly.

A. His speech was very quick.
B. He was a quick speaker.
C. He made a quick speech.
D. All are correct.
Question 13: It's a good idea to wear a helmet when riding a motorbike.

A. It is good for wear a helmet when riding a motorbike.
B. It is good to wearing a helmet when riding a motorbike.
C. It is good to wear a helmet when riding a motorbike.
D. It is good wearing a helmet when riding a motorbike.
Question 14: This coffee is too hot for me to drink.

A. This coffee is not cool enough for me to drink.
B. This coffee is cool enough for me to drink.
C. This coffee is so hot that I can drink it.
D. This coffee is not hot enough for me to drink.
Question 15: ”Don't make so much noise,” my father said to us.

A. My father told us don't make so much noise.
B. My father told us not to make so much noise.
C. My father told us to not make so much noise.
D. My father said to us not to make so much noise.
Question 16: She will pass the exam if she studies harder.

A. Unless she studies harder, she will pass the exam.
B. If she doesn't study harder, she will pass the exam.
C. She will pass the exam unless she doesn't study harder.
D. Unless she studies harder, she won't pass the exam.

LIVEWORKSHEETS