

GENRES OF LITERATURE

Instructions: Click on the video link below, listen attentively to the entire video and then answer the questions that follow based on the directions given.

Video Link:

Directions: For questions 1-5, click on the correct answer.

1. Fiction can best be described as _____

- | | |
|----------------------------|-----------------------|
| (A) something that is true | (B) something factual |
| (C) anything that is true | (D) something untrue |

2. All of the following are common forms of literature except _____.

- | | | | |
|---------|-------------|-----------|----------------|
| (A) man | (B) stories | (C) poems | (D) text books |
|---------|-------------|-----------|----------------|

3. Literature written in verse format, divided up into lines can best be classified as _____.

- (A) prose (B) drama (C) poetry (D) novels

4. Which of the following will you classify as non-fiction?

- (A) Romeo and Juliet (B) English Alive (C) A Cow Called Boy (D) Play Me

5. All of the following are examples of prose except _____ ?

- (A) novels (B) biographies (C) letters (D) news articles

6. Match each classification with its definition based on the video.

- | | |
|------------------------|---|
| (A) Prose | Literature about real people or events |
| (B) Non-Fiction | Literature about people or events imagined |
| (C) Fiction | Literature written in sentences or paragraphs |
| (D) Drama | Literature written in verse format |
| (E) Poetry | Literature that is meant to be acted out |

7. Drag and drop the genre to match each example below.

Novel

Poetry

Drama

Prose

(A) The Skin I'm In _____

(B) Romeo and Juliet _____

(C) Biography _____

(D) Poem _____

8. According to the video, literature can best be defined as:

_____.

9. Choose whether the statements below are True or False.

(A) Fiction deals with events that are real.

(B) Poetry is written in sentences and paragraph format.

(C) A biography is a good example of non-fiction.

(D) Play Me is literature meant to be acted out

(E) A genre is a group or classification of literature.
