Adjectives

Task 5

1) …….. (Falsehood) statements on your tax form could land you in jail.

2) Your translation is too …….. (loosen).

3) Many ……... (lead) scientists do not consider that science can give absolutely …….. (rely) knowledge.

4) She was an extremely …… (gift) poet.

5) The chemicals in paint can be …… (hazard) to health.

6) I felt …… (amaze) and …… (gratitude) for our …… (miracle) escape.

7) They studied …… (herb) medicine as an alternative to the drugs of the …… (medicine) profession.

8) She tries to look …… (maturity) and sophisticated.

9) He was extremely …… (intrusion) and she was …… (thank) to see Marguerite hurry out.

10) It was a shy and …… (fear) child.

11) How much are your …… (month) interest payments?

12) I'm both ……. (hunger) and …… (thirst).

13) The fast pace of ……. (society) change is constantly creating new opportunities.

14) It's …… (monster) to charge that much for a hotel room.

15) Passing her exams was an ……. (stand out) achievement.

16) It is …… (necessitate) to make the system more …… (hospitality) to women.

17) Many of the prisoners are …… (habit) liars.

18) It's hard to give an ……..… (object) opinion about your own children.

19) The housewives were asked if they found housework …… (monotony).

20) They faced the …… (increase) difficulty of finding …… (train) staff.

21) The meal was a ……(join) effort (=two or more people worked on it together).

22) Be …….. (care) of the traffic when you cross the road.

23) …… (Rely) walking guidebooks cover many of the most …… (popularity) …… (continent) routes.

24) He was …… (lack) in confidence.

25) The sums involved are …… (mass)-over £12 billion in the first year …… (lonely).

LIVEWORKSHEETS