Transform the sentences using inversion.

1. The plan will move forward only with her approval.
   _____ forward.
2. I had hardly opened my book when the power went out.
   _____ when the power went out.
3. They will consider giving him another chance only if he apologizes.
   _____ giving him another chance.
4. This is not an acceptable outcome in any way.
   _____ an acceptable outcome.
5. The manager did not lose control of the situation at any time.
   _____ control of the situation.
6. We had barely sat down when the waiter brought our food.
   _____ when the waiter brought our food.
7. They knew little about how much effort the task would require.
   _____ how much effort the task would require.
8. You can travel everywhere by boat only in Venice.
   _____ everywhere by boat.
9. We didn't feel more welcomed anywhere than in that small village.
   _____ more welcomed than in that small village.
10. The emails started flooding in as soon as the meeting had ended.
    _____ the emails started flooding in.
11. The report should not be shared without approval on any condition.
    _____ shared without approval.
12. He walked so slowly that we thought something was wrong.
    _____ that we thought something was wrong.
13. We will not tolerate cheating during the exam under any circumstances.
    _____ cheating during the exam.
14. The teacher had scarcely entered the room when the students went silent.
    _____ the room when the students went silent.
15. The chaos was such that no one knew what to do.
    _____ that no one knew what to do.
16. These documents must not be taken home on any account.
    _____ home.
17. You can achieve your long-term goals only by staying focused.
    _____ your long-term goals.
18. He was so tired that he fell asleep at his desk.
    _____ that he fell asleep at his desk.
19. She responded so quickly that we barely had time to process the question.
    _____ that we barely had time to process the question.
20. He not only forgot the meeting, but he also missed the deadline.
    _____ the meeting, but he also missed the deadline.
21. The team can hope to win the championship only in this way.
    _____ to win the championship.
22. I will not agree to their proposal without changes in any way.
    _____ to their proposal without changes.

LIVEWORKSHEETS