Name: Grade:

Date:

Social Studies

Instructions: Match the correct definition with their words by putting the letters of the matches on the blanks.

_____ air pressure	a. the amount of water vapor in the air
_____ thermometer	b. water vapor turns to droplets
_____ barometer	c. measures air temperature
_____ humidity	d. the weight of the air
_____ precipitation	e. used to measure air pressure

Instructions: Answer the following questions based on your understanding.

1. Define the term sunshine. (1pt)

2. Which element of weather is likely to be seen during the early morning? (1pt)

3. Which two weather elements are likely to be used during the summer months in The Bahamas? (2pts)

4. Describe one weather element we learnt today. State the weather element that stood out to you most and describe it. (3pts)

LIVEWORKSHEETS