A

The first little lamb built his house out of straw because it was the easiest thing to do. The second little lamb built his house out of sticks. This was a little bit stronger than a straw house. The third little lamb said 'I'm going to build myself a much bigger, better, stronger house,' and built his house out of bricks.

B

And he huffed, and he puffed and he blew but nothing happened. So he huffed and he puffed and he blew again, even harder, but still nothing happened. The brick house was so strong.

The wolf was very angry and getting even bigger and even worse by the minute.

'I'm going to eat you all,' he shouted, 'just you wait and see." and he climbed up on the roof to look for a way into the brick house.

C

One night the big bad wolf, who wanted to eat the little lambs, came along and saw the first little lamb in his straw house. He said "Let me in, Let me in, little lamb or I'll huff and I'll puff and I'll blow your house in!" «No, Go away!", said the little lamb. But of course the wolf huffed and puffed and blew the house in. But the little lamb ran away as fast as he can and went to the second little lamb's house to hide.

D

The next night the wolf was even hungrier and he saw the wooden house of the second little lamb . He knocked the door and he said "Let me in, Let me in, little lamb or I'll huff and I'll puff and I'll blow your house in!" «No, Go away!", said the little lamb. But of course the wolf huffed and puffed and blew the house in. 'Then I'll huff and I'll puff and I'll blow your house in!' said the wolf. But the two little lambs ran away as fast as they can and went to the third little lamb's house to hide.

E

The next day the third little lamb invited his mother over . She said "You see it is just as I told you. The way to be successful is to do things as well as you can for your needs."

The little lambs learned that lesson. And they just lived happily ever after!

F

Once upon a time there was a mother sheep who had three little lambs. The three little lambs grew so big that their mother said to them, "You are too big to live here any longer. You must go and build houses for yourselves. But take care that the wolf does not catch you."

G

The little lambs saw the wolf climb up on the roof and they put a roaring fire in the fireplace and placed on it a large pot of water.

When the wolf finally found the hole in the chimney he crawled down and right into that kettle of water and that was the end of his troubles with the big bad wolf.

H

'What did I tell you?' said the third little lamb. 'It's important to build houses properly.' But he welcomed them in and they all stayed together for the rest of the night.

Next night the wolf was even hungrier and feeling bigger and worse than ever. He came to the third little lamb's house. He knocked the door and He said "Let me in, Let me in, little lamb or I'll huff and I'll puff and I'll blow your house in!" «No, Go away!", said the little lamb.
