

Starting University

Write the correct word in the blanks.

Hi, my name's Emma. Welcome to the college! I've been studying here for a year now. Starting at college isn't easy, but I'm sure you'll soon feel at home. When I first started studying here last year, I was (1) _____ nervous that I couldn't even ask anyone for help. I got lost five times on my first day!

Remember that (2) _____ student at the college has been new at one time, and understands how you feel. So (3) _____ you're not sure where to go, just ask - we're all happy to help!

You probably don't know many people here. To make some friends, (4) _____ not spend break times with some of your new classmates in the café? Or how (5) _____ joining one of the many clubs we have at the college? (6) _____ are lots to choose from.

Good luck on your new course!
