Calling all filmmakers! NDS Teen Comp
Here at the National Drama Society (NDS) we are looking for filmmakers to make a cool short film.

This is a competition for 12–16-year-olds (for children from 8 to 11years old, we have a separate competition, called NDS Kids Comp), and the prize is a free two-week filmmaking course at one of our colleges (usually worth £250). You can choose from one of 100 locations around the country.

You don't need any special equipment, just your phone or tablet. Clips can be up to three minutes long, and can be about anything.

Please upload your video and entry form on our website by 15th August. We'll name the winner on 20th August.

B
Hi Pablo,
Did you see the message on the school noticeboard today? It's about a filmmaking competition, and you can win a free two-week course at a filmmaking college. Do you still play in your band? I'd like to enter the competition with a video of your band playing a song. Would you and the band like to help me? Maybe we can film you playing in the skate park at End's Green. It's easy to do! What do you think?
Kaylie

C
Hi Kaylie,
What an original idea! Let's do it! I need to speak to the rest of 'Masterpiece' first, but I think they'll want to. You're great at making videos, too! :)
