GRAMMAR BOX: MODAL AUXILIARY VERBS FOR GIVING ADVICE

MODAL AUXILIARY VERB	LANGUAGE USAGE
must	should is used when giving advice.
You should tell your mom about your grades.	should is used when giving advice.
have to	ought to is used when giving suggestions.

GRAMMAR STRUCTURE: MODAL AUXILIARY VERBS

POSITIVE SENTENCES	NEGATIVE SENTENCES	INTERROGATIVE SENTENCES
Kit should go to school.	Kit shouldn't skip class.	Should Kit go to school?
Marie must finish her homework	you must not drink and drive	must they show their IDs?
you have to be more careful	They don't have to come today	Do I have to be in the meeting?

VOCABULARY BOX: PARTS OF THE BODY

READING COMPREHENSION: LENDING A HAND

3 Fill in the corresponding part of the body according to the options given in the vocabulary box.

VOCABULARY BOX
arms	neck	knees	hand

Teagan: Could I give you a (A.) _____ with your books?

Nova: I accept your help with open (B.) _____

Teagan: I'm on my (C.) _____ I thought the class would never end!

Nova: Sure. The new teacher is a pain in the (D.) _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS