Listen task 2: Around the world

I. Listen and write

1.

Bowing is the traditional way of _____ in Northeast Asian countries like _____ and _____. This picture, for example, shows how _____women _____. In Japan, when you bow, you don't _____ directly at the other person's _____. In both Japan and Korea, people _____ to show _____.

2.

When _____ meet in Russia, they often _____ each other. This is true for both _____ and _____. But_____isn't the only place where friends hug. In _____, for example, friends also _____ each other when they _____. In Brazil, a hug is called abraco. When you hug someone, you usually_____the person a light _____ on the _____, too.

3.

The salaam is a _____from the _____and is used in Jordan, _____and other Arab countries. It is most popular with _____ people. To give a salaam, first touch your _____, then your forehead. Then move your _____up, away from your _____. When people _____ this greeting, they say, "Peace be with you."

4.

People in_____and _____ use a _____ kind of greeting. It is called the_____in India, an in Thailand it is called the _____. To do the _____you put your hands together high _____your chest, and you _____ slightly. It is a way of _____. It also means "_____" and "_____".

II. Write a number (1-9) to put the sentences in the correct order. Number 1 is for example.

_____ It was fine and it's great to be here!

__1__ Are you Paul?

_____ No, I'm not. I'm Emir. You must be Vanya.

_____ Ah, Yuna, this is Vanya.

_____ Yes, I am! Nice to meet you.

_____ Perfect. Thanks.

_____ Hi, I'm Yuna. Nice to meet you – welcome to the team!

_____ So how was your journey?

_____ You too. Can I show you the office?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

III. Complete the dialogue.

Omar: Hi. (1)..... you Gabriella?

Anna: No, (2)..... not. But she asked me to meet you. I'm Anna. You (3)..... be Omar.

Omar: Yes, I am! Nice to (4)..... you.

Anna: You (5)..... . Can I show you the school?

Omar: Perfect. (6)..... .

Anna: So (7)..... was your journey?

Omar: It (8)..... OK, thanks.

Anna: Ah, Matt, (9)..... is Omar.

Matt: Hi, I'm Matt. Nice to meet you, Omar. (10)..... to the class!

LIVEWORKSHEETS