The Squash Queen

Dato' Nicol David was born on 26 August1983 in Penang. She is a Malaysian squash player who has dominated the sport in the early 21st century and became the first to win eight World Open crowns. Her interest in squash started at the age of five. At the age of 13 years old, she reached the quarterfinals of the World Junior Squash Championships and two years later the young Dato' Nicol David became the youngest woman to win the World Junior Championship.

Dato' Nicol David received international attention following her success in 2005 and in January 2006 she was officially ranked the number one female player in the world, a status never before been held by an Asian woman. Her second consecutive World Open title in 2006 witnessed her achievements in six championships. She excelled further in 2007, securing seven more titles and another World Open crown.

With her stunning accomplishments, Dato' Nicol David was inaugurated into the World Squash Federation Hall of Fame and declared her as the 12th "legend" of the sport. In 2019, Dato' Nicol David announced her retirement in the squash sport. She was crowned as the World Games Greatest Athlete of All Time in 2021 by receiving a total of 318,943 votes and being the only Malaysian and Asian athlete among 24 candidates.

DISCOVER MARVELLOUS MALAYSIA

A	Cameron Highlands
	Cameron Highlands in Pahang is one of Malaysia's most popular tourist destinations. Cooling resorts, tea plantations and strawberry farms sprawl lazily across lush valleys and it is the perfect setting for a relaxing holiday. Tourists in Cameron Highlands can expect a peaceful community with a laid-back outlook of life. There are a plenty of amenities including banks, clinics, restaurants and even a shopping mall in the town.
B	Tanjung Biru Beach, Port Dickson
	Tanjung Biru is a secluded bay that is located about 17 km south of Port Dickson town. Tanjung Biru features a smaller but more dramatic sea view that gleams between emerald green and deep blue, depending on how the sun hits the sea water's surface. Because of its proximity to Tanjung Tuan Forest Reserve, wildlife sightings are common including migratory birds, squirrels and monkeys. Recreational water sports are popular activities here including banana boating, kayaking and the occasional jet ski.
C	Bandar Melaka
	Bandar Melaka is a famous tourist destination with a rich cultural heritage, subsequent to the colonial rule of Portuguese, Dutch and British. Traditional culture is carried on by the Baba and Nyonya who are descendants of the Chinese delegates of Ming Dynasty where they emigrated from China and settled here. Jonker Street, Chinatown, Cheng Hoon Teng temple and the green 18th-century 3-tiered roof tops Javanese-influenced Kampung Kling Mosque are among the historical sites that is a must for tourists to visit.
