1. ice desert, with much less precipitation inland.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2. mountain through which rocks emerge from the interior of the earth that are molten, that is, melted and hot.
3. That is depopulated or uninhabited.
4. Mass of salty water that covers approximately three-quarters of the earth's surface.
5. Population inhabited by a group of people who are mainly engaged in industrial and commercial activities.
6. Set of mountains aligned along an axis that form a unit.
7. Extensive land, and populated with trees and plants that is characteristic of areas with hot and rainy climate
8. Natural stream of water that flows permanently and will flow into another
9. Large natural reservoir of water in a depression in the ground, which collects rainwater, underground or from.
10. Large area of land separated by oceans and, in general, by certain geographical features.
11. Portion of land surrounded by water on all sides.
12. Stream of water that falls from a certain height due to a sharp unevenness in its channel

LIVEWORKSHEETS