BÀI TẬP VỀ IDIOMS

1163. She knew she was _____after she made that mistake in the meeting.

A. blowing hot and cold B. on thin ice

C. adding fuel to the fire D. weathering the storm

1164. The unexpected snowstorm really _____our plans.

A. rained on B. clouded over C. threw cold water on D. broke the ice

1165. The company's profit forecasts were just _____.

A. hot air B. on cloud nine C. a storm in a teacup D. stealing thunder

1166. They were warned about the risks, but they _____anyway.

A. saw which way the wind was blowing B. threw caution to the wind

C. weathered the storm D. added fuel to the fire

1167. His ideas are so unrealistic that I think he's always _____.

A. breaking the ice B. on thin ice C. under the weather D. chasing rainbows

1168. The press conference was awkward, so he tried to _____by making a joke.

A. break the ice B. weather the storm C. blow hot and cold D. take the plunge

1169. The team was _____when their star player got injured just before the final.

A. clouded over B. blown away C. under the weather D. under a cloud

1170. Their new product launch was a disaster; it really _____.

A. stole the thunder B. took the wind out of their sails

C. chased rainbows D. cooled down

1171. I couldn't make it to the event, so I had to take a _____.

A. cold shower B. rain check C. break the ice D. weather the storm

1172. He's been _____trying to manage both work and his family commitments.

A. clouding over B. snowed under C. adding fuel to the fire D. taking a rain check 1173. She was acting distant and gave me the _____when I asked her about it.

A. cold shoulder B. storm in a teacup C. chasing rainbows D. cold feet

1174. I know this project is challenging, but we have to _____and finish it.

A. make hay B. weather the storm C. cool down D. break the ice

1175. Just relax and don't _____before you even start the exam.

A. blow hot and cold B. throw in the towel C. chase rainbows D. get cold feet

1176. He's been working so hard lately that he's completely _____.

A. burning the midnight oil B. hitting the sack

C. under the weather D. on the back burner

1177. She's always prepared for meetings, never caught _____.

A. out of the woods B. off guard C. with her hands tied D. up in the air

1178. When the new project started, we were all _____.

A. on the same page B. in hot water C. feeling under the weather D. up in arms

1179. We need to _____and focus on the project's key deliverables.

A. hit the ground running B. play it by ear

C. burn the midnight oil D. break the ice

LIVEWORKSHEETS