BÀI TẬP VỀ IDIOMS

1180. The budget cuts have put all new plans _____.

A. under the weather B. on the back burner C. in the loop D. over the moon

1181. Everyone in the office is _____about the new boss's policies.

A. playing it by ear B. up in arms C. behind the scenes D. in hot water

1182. He's been given extra responsibilities but is still trying to _____.

A. get his foot in the door B. climb the corporate ladder

C. burn the candle at both ends D. test the waters

1183. Her constant absences put her job _____.

A. up in the air B. at stake C. under her belt D. in the same boat 1184. It's important to keep _____in meetings to ensure clear communication.

A. your nose to the grindstone B. your finger on the pulse

C. all your ducks in a row D. everyone on the same page

1185. The manager's decision to cut bonuses _____.

A. opened a can of worms B. raised the bar

C. turned a blind eye D. pulled out all the stops

1186. We were _____when the client suddenly canceled the deal.

A. left out in the cold B. hitting the nail on the head

C. out of the loop D. on cloud nine

1187. You need to _____if you want to meet that tight deadline.

A. pull strings B. step up your game

C. throw in the towel D. go through the motions

1188. She _____during the presentation by speaking confidently and clearly.

A. hit the nail on the head B. missed the boat

C. passed the buck D. threw in the towel

1189. They've asked for more data, so we'll have to _____before we submit our report.

A. put our ducks in a row B. fly under the radar

C. hit the ground running D. stick to our guns

1190. It's crucial to keep _____when working on long-term projects.

A. the ball rolling B. the cat out of the bag

C. the cards on the table D. your foot in the door

1191. His poor performance was a real _____to his promotion chances.

A. cloud nine B. black mark C. golden opportunity D. tipping point

1192. She's doing great work, so it's no surprise that she's _____for a promotion.

A. on the fence B. in line C. up in arms D. in hot water

1193. The new hire is still trying to _____in the team.

A. get a foot in the door B. test the waters

C. make a splash D. find her feet

1194. We had a quick meeting just to _____and discuss the new project.

A. break the ice B. go back to the drawing board

C. touch base D. hit the nail on the head

LIVEWORKSHEETS