BÀI TẬP VỀ IDIOMS

1378. His curiosity knows no bounds; he's always trying to _____something new.
A. skip B. avoid C. learn D. forget

1379. After the workshop, I felt I had _____the most important concepts.
A. dropped B. grasped C. avoided D. forgotten

1380. The students were _____as a fiddle after reviewing the material several times.
A. sharp B. flat C. slow D. off-key

1381. He's been _____the books all week to prepare for the exam.
A. hitting B. dropping C. missing D. burning

1382. You need to _____the books if you want to pass this course.
A. hit B. drop C. skim D. avoid

1383. The best way to master a skill is through hands-on experience, or learning by _____.
A. avoiding B. practice C. trial and error D. breaking

1384. As they say, _____is the mother of learning.
A. avoidance B. repetition C. mistake D. loss

1385. The workshop was a _____of knowledge, providing useful insights for everyone.
A. waste B. fountain C. desert D. drain

1386. No matter how much you learn, there's always _____for improvement.
A. space B. room C. door D. wall

1387. Learning is a lifelong process; it's never too late to _____your skills.
A. throw B. improve C. avoid D. forget

1388. The project was a _____opportunity for the interns to apply what they had learned.
A. perfect B. missed C. last-minute D. wasted

1389. It's important to learn the _____before trying to innovate.
A. fundamentals B. distractions C. walls D. mistakes

1390. He wasn't just book smart; he had a lot of _____sense as well.
A. forgotten B. common C. avoided D. rare

1391. When it comes to learning, you often have to _____outside the box.
A. stay B. forget C. think D. hide

1392. He didn't know the answer at first, but after _____his brain, he remembered it.
A. dropping B. forgetting C. picking D. racking

1393. The teacher said we would have to _____up on last week's lesson before moving on.
A. brush B. drop C. break D. forget

1394. He's the type of person who's always _____to learn more and improve.
A. hesitant B. reluctant C. eager D. lazy

1395. She's a born teacher; she has a _____for explaining things clearly.
A. talent B. gift C. habit D. difficulty

1396. When starting a new job, it's important to _____from those with more experience.
A. avoid B. learn C. miss D. skip

1397. The professor's detailed explanations helped the students _____difficult concepts.
A. miss B. grasp C. drop D. avoid

LIVEWORKSHEETS